

ALBUSH - Raymond Gustaf Albush died in the Galt Hospital in Lethbridge on August 31, 1985.

He was born on April 15, 1936 in the One Tree area and attended the Alcorna School in Rainier where he received his education and resided with his parents in the 1940s and 1950s.

He worked with the Allen boys in Lethbridge in construction on numerous projects.

He married Jean Poch in Lethbridge in 1958 and has resided there since.

Surviving are his wife, Jean; two sons, Larry and Vernon and a daughter, Diane, all of Lethbridge; his parents, Gust and Louise Albush of Brooks; a sister, Dorothy and her husband, Emil Flaig of Calgary; a brother, George and his wife, Mary of Brooks; also aunts, uncles, cousins and nieces, all in Alberta.

A memorial service was held at McKillop United Church in Lethbridge on September 4. Cremation followed.

Martin Bros. Funeral Directors were in charge of arrangements.