

ARMSTRONG: Anna Amatine Armstrong died in the Brooks Health Centre on July 5, 1987 at the age of 89 years.

She was born in the Ozark Mountains of Missouri, U.S.A. and came to Alberta before Alberta received its provincial status in 1905 and grew up at Irvine.

She married George E. Armstrong in Medicine Hat in 1922 and resided on the East-West Ranch in the Cypress Hills and retired to Medicine Hat in 1951. She resided there until 1982 and lived with her children in Duchess and Bassano until entering the nursing home this year.

She was predeceased by her husband George on May 24, 1965 and two grandchildren, Bill Armstrong in 1983, Patricia Burrows in 1984 and a grand~daughter-in-law, Camille Plumer and her son Ben in 1986.

Surviving are two daughters, Cathryn Plumer and her husband Ban of Duchess and Betty Anne Burrows and her husband Ralph of Bassano, three sons, Bob and his wife Verna and Arnold and his wife Shirley all of Bassano, Peter and his wife Audrey of Medicine Hat, 24 grand-children, 30 great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral service will be held on Thursday, July 9 at 11 a.m. in Knox Presbyterian Church in Bassano with the Reverend Hector Rose officiating. Interment will follow in Hillside Cemetery in Medicine Hat at 3 p.m. with the Reverend David Paterson officiating.

Pallbearers are Tom Armstrong, Grant Armstrong, Gary Armstrong, Hunter Burrows, Jim Plumer and Mack McLaughlin.

If friends desire memorial contributions may be made to the charity of their choice.

Smith Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.